4. Race Committee

The Event will be run by Salve Regina University (John Ingalls), and Sue Miller will serve as the PRO.

5. Facilities

All pre-regatta registrations and check-ins will take place at the Salve Regina University sailing site located in the Sail Newport Waterfront Center at the tip of Fort Adams State Park. There is excellent viewing from the sailing site, excellent bathroom facilities and ample parking.

6. Coaching

Coach boats may be made available, but racing will be easily viewed from the shore at Fort Adams

7. Judging

A judges/umpire list will be put together by the spring of 2015

8. Entry Fee

Applicable

9. Housing Accommodations

Numerous hotels and Bed and Breakfasts can be found throughout Newport. Nearby Middletown, just 10-15 minutes away, has the larger hotel chains at cheaper rates.

10. Flight Information

The closest airport is T.F. Green Airport (PVD) in Warwick, RI (also known as Providence Airport). It is approximately 45 minutes from Newport. Vehicle rentals are available at the airport from all major companies.

11. Non-Sailing Activities

Newport, RI is one of the premier waterfront destinations in the country. The streets are lined with hundreds of stores and eateries, and Newport boasts some of the best beaches and mansions on the east coast.

12. Website

The official Nationals website will be available from www.collegesailing.org by the spring of 2015.
